PRESENTS

Michigan's Most Dangerous Women

ON

WEDNESDAY, March 22nd -- 7:00 PM

AT

Salem Township Hall (9600 Six Mile Road)

After a short business meeting, Tobin Buhk, a freelance author specializing in historic true crime, will give a presentation about his book "Michigan's Most Dangerous Women." This will be a peek behind the walls of the old Detroit House of Correction, the only Michigan prison to house female inmates serving long-term sentences, and meet some of the most dangerous women in Michigan history: a serial poisoner who killed over a dozen because she wanted to don her black dress and attend the funerals; a woman who drowned her unwanted children, one by one, in a nearby river; a wife who used an ax to sever her marriage; and a con artist known as "Queen of the Underworld."
